Pottery of Mexico: San Jose de Gracia and Patamban DVD

Gorgeously shot video of virtuoso potters of San Jose de Gracia who are shown making their large and elaborate pineapple punchbowls made using their ancient bisque mold processes. These potters share the clay source with the potters of Patamban who demonstrate the making of the slip decorated wares for local domestic use. The entire process is included from the mining of the clay to low fire wood firing without cones. This video is for the person who is interested in press molded and sprigged pottery, or who would like to become better acquainted with the rich and vibrant world of ceramics happening in the country right next door. $40. + 5.60 shipping within continental US. Check, cash, visa/mc/amex accepted.
